There was a donation of $100 to the Berlin & Coos Historical Society for the speaking engagement of Bill Spalding, Report was approved.

Correspondence: None

Old Business:

Canaan College Reunion: Carol made contact with a Canaan College alumni group on Facebook and invited them to view the new Museum exhibit of Canaan College artifacts. Thirteen alums attended on Saturday of Old Home Week. Refreshments were provided and the attendees were very appreciative. Carol intends to submit a write-up of the occasion to the Town website.

New Business:

Inventory printed: Carol has completed a first draft of the inventory and printed one copy to keep in the Museum. It consists of 84 pages listing over 1900 items. The information is condensed to the basic areas. If the full inventory were printed with all the extra information recorded, it would take at least 300 pages.

The members viewed the Log Book which Donna keeps to record donations to the Museum. Much praise was given for the extensive work Donna has done. She also got numerous donor forms signed.

New donations were received from Sue Marcoulier, Ed & Jackie Lary Estate, Frances Taussig, Nancy Dolliver, Wallace Andrew, and Ellen Williams.

Meeting adjourned. Carol Bergeron, Secretary
